Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord, Sunday 29th March

Easter Sunday, 5th April 2026

Hosanna...

This word, which was used to express adoration, praise or joy, features in the gospel reading from Matthew which forms part of the procession into the church that we observe on this special day. Like the crowds that welcomed Jesus to Jerusalem, we are in a joyful mood, welcoming and proclaiming our King. We wave our palms and sing the Entrance Antiphon as we move into the church. How quickly, however, things can change.

The mass continues with a reading from the prophet Isaiah, the third of the four songs of the Servant of the Lord. It is a striking reading, almost mournful in tone. The response to the psalm, 'my God my God why have you forsaken me?' continues this theme. The mood is changing already. And the second reading, from the letter to the Phillipians further illustrates the remarkable events that are now unravelling before us. God made man, humbled to the form of a servant. But this reading has a distinct up-turn at the end. '...that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow...', 'and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.' There is hope here.

Then comes the main event, as it were, the Passion of our Lord according to Matthew. The first time I read this in church, the first Easter after my ordination, I found it a very difficult thing to do. It is one thing to read it quietly to yourself in preparation, but another thing completely to read it in parts, as we do on Palm Sunday and again on Good Friday, although from a different gospel. The enormity of the occasion really does strike home. I still find it a challenge even now some nineteen years later.

As we begin Holy Week, let us redouble our efforts to draw closer to God through our chosen Lenten discipline or observance. It is very easy at this time to feel relief at the thought that there is only one more week until the chocolate box can come out again, but that would be to miss the point. The whole point is to walk with Jesus, to spiritually tread the Via Dolorosa alongside him, to share his pain and distress and to live through it with him. The last few steps of a long journey can be the hardest, with the finish in sight. But regardless of how your Lent has been so far, keep on pressing in, the prize is within our grasp, and that prize is without measure - it is the wonderful promise of His resurrection, and through that forgiveness for our sins and everlasting life with Him.

Wishing you a blessed Holy Week and Eastertide. Deacon Russell

PLEASE PRAY FOR THOSE WHO ARE SICK especially for those whose names are on our prayer board.

A reminder that the clocks go forward this Saturday night!

Fr Rob writes: Keeping The Easter Fire Safe We have the joyful lighting of the Paschal candle from the Easter fire at the Vigil next Saturday night (April 4). It is a beautiful moment and from the Paschal Candle the candles held by each of us will be lit – but only once we have entered the church. We ask parents to be particularly attentive with their own children – either holding a candle for them or, if the child is old enough to be trusted with a candle, keeping a sharp eye on their safety. The candles are only kept alight during this entrance procession and the singing of the Exultet and then relit for the renewal of our baptismal promises. At Easter morning masses candles are again held by all but only during the renewal of our baptismal promises. Again, a beautiful sign of our Easter faith, but again keep an eye to make sure everyone stays safe. Thank you.

PARKING AT ST HUGH'S

A number of complaints from our neighbours have been made in the past week regarding the parking by our parishioners, especially relating to drives being blocked. The police have been consulted about parking in Victoria Road and they have advised us as follows:

- To park legally, as well as considerately
- Not to block the road which would prevent buses and other large vehicles getting down Victoria Road, especially the emergency services
- Not to block the pavements so that mobility scooters and buggies have to go into the road in order to pass
- We are reminded that there is a car park a short walk away in the village, which we are free to use
- Disabled parking bays on the church forecourt should be left for those who need them
- If a fire engine comes down the road, it may well damage cars that are blocking its path

Please be considerate to our neighbours.

WOKING AND GUILDFORD'S FREE LIBRARIES OF THINGS

Following the success of Guildford's library of things, Woking has now launched its own version wokingenvironmentaction.com/library-of-things/. The idea is to save people from having to buy new items that they will use only occasionally or even just once – instead, such items can be borrowed for free. The Woking version currently has some impressive power tools (and a pressure washer, strimmer, electric sewing machine, and cake tins in the shape of numbers). The Guildford library of things has been established for much longer and, besides tools, includes board games, gazebos, camping equipment, cool boxes, a steam cleaner, and so much more – over 100 items in fact. The Guildford Library of Things calculates that, with over 1,000 members, it has saved 6 tonnes of CO2 emissions (from new products not needing to be made, transported, packaged etc.) and its users over £105,000 in borrowing items for free, instead of purchasing them. Use the link above to find more details of what is available and how the scheme works in Woking. See here for Guildford's library of things guildfordlibraryofthings.org. To use the libraries, you will need to set up a free account and reserving your chosen item is recommended for Guildford, but not essential. Both library of things are located in their respective town libraries and donations of items are always welcome.
